

THE BERRIES 2

<http://talesfromacottagegarden.blogspot.hu/2011/01/january-obsession.html>

NYELVTANI MAGYARÁZAT:

have got + főnév (+ helyhatározó)	have got + to do (főnévi igenév)
van valamije, birtokol valamit (vhol)	kell vmit tennie
The children have got good books. A gyerekeknek vannak jó könyveik.	We have got to arrive in time. Időben kell érkezünk.
Have the children got good books? The children haven't got good books.	Have we got to arrive in time? We haven't got to arrive in time.
She has got a cat. Van egy macskája.	She has got to leave. El kell indulnia.
Has she got a cat? She hasn't got a cat.	Has she got to leave? She hasn't got to leave.

További példák:

Mary has got a little lamb in my garden.	Marinak van egy kis báránya a kertemben.
Why haven't they got money?	Miért nincsen pénzük?
I have got to look after her lamb.	Gondoznom kell a bárányát.
Who have you got to invite to the party?	Kit kell meghívnod a buliba?
Have you got a good idea about the party?	Van jó ötleted a bulival kapcsolatban?
She hasn't got any children.	Nincsenek gyerekei.
David has got to do his homework this afternoon.	Dávidnak ma délután kell elkészítenie a házi feladatát.
How have we got to wrap the presents?	Hogyan kell becsomagolnunk az ajándékokat?
The police have got to find the killer.	A rendőrségnek meg kell találnia a gyilkost.
Karen hasn't got any / a chance.	Karen-nek egyáltalán nincs esélye.
Why have we always got to work?	Miért kell mindig dolgoznunk?

1. Többször olvassa el figyelmesen az olvasmányt. Tanulja meg a szavakat, majd a tartalmat.

A PROBLEM

Scene⁰ 1

Mr George Raspberry has got a big problem¹. He has got to do some gardening², but he hasn't got any tools³ in his shed⁴. There are a lot of old, useless⁵ things⁶ in his shed (he is a fanatic⁷ collector⁸ of junk⁹ ☺), but he hasn't got any rakes¹⁰, shovels¹¹, hoes¹² or sickles¹³. However¹⁴, he has got an electric lawnmower¹⁵. It's brand new¹⁶, but unfortunately¹⁷, he hasn't got an extension cord¹⁸. There are a lot of dim¹⁹ thoughts²⁰ in his head²¹, but now, all of a sudden²², a clear²³ thought²⁰ is there: Mr Strawberry's shed⁴! It's clean²⁴, neat²⁵ and there is everything²⁶ for gardening²⁷: all²⁸ he has got to do is ... hmmm. But what, if²⁹ ... somebody³⁰ is at home³¹? Blackberry, the cat is in the house. But the tools are in the shed⁴. So, it's not a problem¹. That cat is sometimes really³² vicious³³, though³⁴. Anyway³⁵, Huckleberry has got to accompany³⁶ him. He's on friendly terms with³⁷ Blackberry, so he is great³⁸ help³⁹. So, there's no problem¹. He's got to try⁴⁰ it.

Scene 2

Mr Raspberry is in Mr Strawberry's shed⁴. He has got to be very careful⁴¹. He has got to 'borrow⁴²', actually⁴³ to steal⁴⁴ Mr Strawberry's tools³, but it is not easy⁴⁵ at all⁴⁶. Huckleberry is beside⁴⁷ him, but the dog is on the alert⁴⁸. There are butterflies⁴⁹ in his stomach⁵⁰¹. So, Mr Raspberry has got to leave⁵¹ very soon⁵². Now⁵³: a rake¹⁰, a little shovel¹¹ and an extension cord¹⁸ are in the plastic⁵⁴ bag⁵⁵, but where's the sickle¹³? It is usually⁵⁶ on a nail⁵⁷ on the wall⁵⁸. But now it isn't there. No problem, he has got to do the gardening² without⁵⁹ a sickle. Quickly⁶⁰! They have got to leave⁵¹ now. But what ...! A man is in the doorway⁶¹ with the sickle¹³ in his hand⁶². He is a stranger⁶³. He's got shaggy⁶⁴, long hair⁶⁵ and grotty⁶⁶ clothes⁶⁷. His face⁶⁸ is threatening⁶⁹. Mr Raspberry is frightened to death⁷⁰. Huckleberry is outside⁷¹ the shed⁴. He has got to go to the forest and he has got to alarm⁷² the animals.

1. a kifejezés jelentése: be volt ijedve, nyugtalanzkodott

Scene 3

Mr Raspberry is on a bed⁷³, he is unconscious⁷⁴. The strange⁷⁵ man, Mr Poisonivy⁷⁶ is in the doorway⁶¹, there's no sickle¹³ in his hand any more⁷⁷, but there's a broad⁷⁸ smile⁷⁹ on his face⁶⁸. He is a dangerous⁸⁰ criminal⁸¹, he has got a long criminal⁸² record⁸³.

0. jelenet
1. gond, baj
2. kertészkedik
3. szerszám
4. fészter
5. hasznavehetetlen
6. dolog, holmi
7. megszállott
8. gyűjtő
9. ócskaság, szemét
10. gereblye
11. lapát
12. kapa
13. sarló
14. azonban
15. fűnyíró
16. vadonatúj
17. sajnos
18. hosszabbító (elektromos)
19. homályos
20. gondolat
21. fej
22. hirtelen
23. tiszta, világos, érthető
24. tiszta, rendes
25. rendes, takaros, tiszta
26. minden
27. kertészkedés
28. minden
29. és mi van, ha ...
30. valaki
31. otthon van
32. tényleg, valóban
33. ádáz, elvetemült
34. bár, mindenesetre
35. akárhogy is
36. elkísér
37. jó viszonyban van vkivel
38. óriási
39. segítség
40. megpróbál
41. óvatos
42. kölcsönvesz, kölcsönkér
43. tulajdonképpen
44. ellop

45. könnyű	55. szatyor, táska, zacskó	65. haj	75. idegen; furcsa
46. egyáltalán	56. rendszerint	66. elnyűtt, nyamvadt	76. mérges szömörce
47. mellett(e)	57. szög	67. ruhanemű	77. többé, már nem
48. résen van	58. fal	68. arc	78. széles
49. lepke, pillangó	59. vmi nélkül	69. fenyegető	79. mosoly
50. gyomor	60. gyorsan	70. halálra van rémülve	80. veszélyes
51. (el)indul	61. az ajtóban	71. vmi előtt (térben)	81. bűnöző
52. hamarosan	62. kéz	72. riaszt	82. bűnügyi
53. na most	63. idegen	73. ágy	83. feljegyzés
54. műanyag	64. bozontos, csimbókos	74. eszméletlen	(criminal record: bűnlajstrom)

THE TWO 'BERRY' FAMILIES

2. Tegyen fel kérdéseket az olvasmány kijelölt szavaihoz!

Scene 1

1 Mr George Raspberry has got a big problem. He has got to do 2 some gardening, but he hasn't got any tools 3 in his shed. There are a lot of 4 old, useless things in his shed (he is a fanatic collector of junk ☺), but he hasn't got 5 any rakes, shovels, hoes, or sickles. However, he has got an 6 electric lawnmower. It's 7 brand new, but unfortunately, he hasn't got an extension cord.

There are 8 a lot of dim thoughts in his head, but now, all of a sudden, a 9 clear thought is there: Mr Strawberry's shed. It's 10 clean, neat and there is everything for gardening: all he has got to do is ... hmmm. But what, if ... somebody is at home?

11 Blackberry, the cat is in the house. But the tools are in the shed. So, it's not a problem. That cat is sometimes really 12 vicious, though. Anyway, Huckleberry has got 13 to accompany 14 him. He's on friendly terms 15 with Blackberry, so he is great help. So, there's no problem. 16 He's got to try it.

Scene 2

Mr Raspberry is in 17 Mr Strawberry's shed. He has got to be 18 very careful. He has got to 'borrow', actually to steal Mr Strawberry's tools, but it is not easy at all. Huckleberry is 19 beside him, but the dog is on the alert. There are butterflies in 20 his stomach. So, Mr Raspberry has got to leave 21 very soon. Now: a rake, a little shovel and an extension cord are in the plastic bag, but where's the sickle? It is usually on a nail on the wall. But now it isn't there. No problem, he has got to do 22 the gardening without 23 a sickle. Quickly! They have got to leave 24 now. But what ...! A man is in the doorway with the sickle in 25 his hand. He is a 26 stranger. He's got 27 shaggy, long hair and grotty clothes. His face is 28 threatening. Mr Raspberry is frightened to death. Huckleberry is outside the shed. He has got to go 29 to the forest and he has got to alarm the animals.

Scene 3

Mr Raspberry is on a 30 bed, he is unconscious. The strange man, Mr Poisonivy is in the doorway, there's no sickle in his hand any more, but there's a broad 31 smile on his face. He is a 32 dangerous criminal, he has got a 33 long criminal record.